Requirements on CIA Items 4676 and 4678

1. In response to your request, submitted herewith are I/EE's requirements on Soviet items 4676 and 4678.

2. Item 4676:

Qualitative analysis of tubes, including evaluation of ruggedization and reliability characteristics.

3. Item 4678:

Would it be possible to have this set brought to I/EE premises for a one-week examination? If not, requirements are as follows:

a. Qualitative analysis of set as a whole in comparison with similar US models and in comparison with earlier Soviet models if possible.

b. Cost analysis of set indicating factory price and probable retail price if this set were manufactured in US; pricing to be done in terms of US 1955 dollars if possible.

c. Qualitative analysis of tubes -- comparison with similar US tubes and similar Soviet tubes of an earlier period.

d. Do components, sub-assemblies and chassis appear to have essentially consumer-type parameters or do they also bear military characteristics?
